WHITE

HOUSE

WELCOME HOME

A Happy Home-Coming.

BATTLING WITH A MADMAN.

Mrs. Bierear's Long Struggle With Her In sane Husband.

Adam Bierear, aged thirty-five years, of 92

Pitt street, committed suicide this morning by cutting his throat. Bierear has been drinking heavily during the last six weeks, and last night he came

TWO COVETED OFFICES.

tion for Mayor and Sheriff.

The Brooklyn Democracy will meet in con-

Marvin Cross, a wealthy lumberman, are the leading candidates to-day, with the odds

Register Slevin Has a Grievance.

Lewis Sanders, E. C. Coggeshall, John Webber.

Carlisle Norwood and John T. Leckman, lawyers, appeared in the Tombs Police Court this morning to answer the charge of malicious libel preferred to answer the charge of maticious noe: preferred against them by Register James J. Sievin. By mutual agreement the examination in the case was laid over until Friday, the 2sth inst. Mr. Sievin alleges that resolutions passed at a meeting in the Real Estate Exchange in March last were made maliciously to reflect upon his conduct as Register of the city of New York. The defendants claim that there was no mailee intended.

Hearing the Pilot's Report.

President E. A. Stevens, of the Hoboken Land and Improvement Company, which owns the ferries running between New York and Hoboken, ferries running between New York and Hoboken, called for a meeting of the officers of the company this morning to listen to the report of Pilot Edgar St. John of the Secancus, the ferry-boat which ran into and sunk the tugboat Edwin Hawiey, in the North River, early last night. The result of the meeting, which lasted two hours, was not made known, nor was the character of Capit St. John's report hinted at. Supt. Woolsey told an Evening Woalsey told an Evening Woalsey told anterest the the company was not at the time ready to submit its report.

No Money for Wine and Cignra-

Col. Richard P. Morgan, Jr., chief of the engin-ering party which recently made the tour of the rovernment-assisted Pacific ratiroads and their government-assisted Pacific railroads and their branches, under the direction of the Pacific Rail-way Commission, has been staying at the Astor House for a few days. In speaking of the charge that a large part of the expenses of the trip was for wine and clarars. Col. Morgan said that so far as his party was concerned no government money had been spent for wine and clarars. The expenses were heavy only because a good deal of time had been used in doing the work in a thorough manner, Drunken Men Warned to be Careful.

Thomas McMahon, a laborer, lives at 421 West

Seventeenth street. Last night he got drunk, mistook 425 for his house, and made himself at home in Timothy Lavin's rooms. When objection was made he beat Lavin and chased Mrs. Lavin about the room. Lavin knocked him down and sat upon him till his wife got a policeman. At the Jefferson Market Court this morning Justice Gorman said that drunken men were mistaking their houses too often now, and committed McMahon for six poulds.

Jay Gould's Projected Trip.

Jay Gould is to spend the coming winter on the Mediterranean, so current gossip has it in Wall street to-day. It is known that his yacht, the Ata-lants, has just been thoroughly overhauled for an ocean voyage, and the talk is that she will start for Gibraltar next Saturday. Mr. Gould is to sail on the same day, but on board a big French steamship. He is to be accompanied by Capt. Shackleford, the Atalanta's commander. The latter's brother will take the yacht across.

Bartley Campbell's Condition.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] MIDDLETOWN, Oct. 28.—Supt. Talcot, of Middle own Asylum, says the report that Bartley Camp bell was recovering and soon to be released to Shipwrecked Sallors in Port.

Brooklyn Democrate Who Want the Nomin ten a letter withdrawing from the race.

home

in an intoxicated condition.

- OVER 800,000 A DAY!

OVER TWO MILLION COPIES A WEEK!

The Largest Circulation of Any Newspaper in the World. The total number of WonLos printed during the week was 2,183,930, as follows:

...300,650 copies. ...306,190 copies. ...318,110 copies.318,110 copies.308,560 copies.295,430 copies.

311,990 Copies.

We, whose signatures are appended, certify to

G. W. TURNER. Business Manager. J. ANGUS SHAW, Cashier.

J. O. SMITH, Foreman WORLD Press-Room C. E. STUART, ing Supt. Mail and Delivery Dept.

to, City and County of New York, st.; TURNER, Busievenally appeared before me G. W. TURNER, Busievenally appeared before me G. W. TURNER, Busievenally appeared to Base of County of County evenally appeared to the St. Strewart, Acting particularly Mail and Delivery Department, and wand H. Rankin, Auditor, who, being personally sen to me, did append their signatures to the statept above made and depose and awear that it is true the state of the state that the state of the sta

EDWARD H. RANKIN, Auditor.

Servet.

W. York, Get. 15, 1887.

Oity and County of New York.

ADVERTISING RATES. (Agate Measurement.)

redinary, 25 cents per line. No extra price for ac-cable display. Business or Special Notices, opposite model page, 50 cents per line. Reading Notices, ored or marked "Advt.": First page, S1.50 per of Fourth page, S1.25 per line; Inside page, S1 to the Bouning teems. Nor do the rates of that teen by to the Borning Edition.

AN INBULT TO THE VOTERS.

In presenting John R. Fellows as their lidate for District-Attorney the Demoatic leaders have deliberately insulted the est and intelligent voters of their party. Is this a time to name for public prosecutor itical hack, first foisted into public serrice by Sween, and since then the subvient tool of every successive Boss?

Is the boon companion of Boodlers, the im nious official against whom scores of ients are hopelessly piled up, a man the mortgages and re-mortgages his salary in advance, a fit man to intrust with the dministration of justice in this city?

If this is the result of " Democratic union it is time for another break. If harmony means supremacy for Bosses and immunity for Boodlers, let there be discord. Every est of good government demands the defeat of this most unfit nomination.

THE REPUBLICAN OPPORTUNITY. Never in the history of politics in this city neve the Republicans had such an open road to success as that which now awaits them.

The ticket of the Democratic Bosses is inted with corruption, handicapped by Boodleism and defiant of the popular will. The scandalous nomination of Fellows, the abstitution of a Wall street broker for a tried and faithful Comptroller, and other weak if not unfit nominations, overbalance he good names on the ticket. It is the Republican opportunity. The de-feet of FELLows is inevitable. The nominareise of courage, honesty and shrewdness in making up the rest of their ticket, will enable them to elect it from top to bottom.

The issue is on between Boodleism and grity, between law-breakers and Justice, tween the Bosses and the People.

Let the Republicans rise to the level of their poortunity.

THE PRESIDENT'S RETURN.

The President returns to Washington to-May after an extended tour that cannot have failed to impress him with the fact that this is a Nation with a big, big N.

It is hoped that he has seen enough to convince him that business does not centre in Wall street nor politics in Massachusetts.

It is likewise to be desired that the incense burning by sycophantic Cabinet officers and ultra-profuse local orators shall not cloud his perception of the fact that this is a govern-ment of, for and by the people, who tolerate no "rulers," but merely appoint an agent to do their will.

Now for work that tells and reforms that

SOME PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

Perfect independence is a prime necessity of the Bench. But how can a Judge be untrammelled who mortgages his salary in advance to a political organization?

Public confidence in the judiciary is set anchor of public welfare. But how can the public have confidence in a bench alled by men who have purchased their Money-bags should have no weight in the eles of justice. But is not the step dangerously short between buying a Judgeship and buying a Judge?

Will the judicial candidates in this cam paign render themselves unfit in the public estimation by consenting to pay these pernielous assessments?

BOT YET SILENCE.

How that a grotesquely unfit nomination for District-Attorney has been made the sid naturally considers that the talk about Roadlaw is " a worn-out cry."

The fact that there are thirteen ex-Alder ier, five ex-Bosses and several other boodle-ispansers still under indictment for bribery is enough to require the election of a District-Attorney who does not consider the de-mand for justice a "worn-out cry."

But the other fact—that politicians whose natural sympathies are with plunderers and BACK AT THE WHITE HOUSE. Boodlers have overruled the honest party eaders and dictated a nomination to suit their own purposes, renders it still more imperative for the people to show that they are not tired of the demand for good governnent When the Boodlers are all punished and their friends no longer control politics, it will be time enough for the "cry" to stop.

TOO WARM AND TOO COLD.

The office-holding oligarchs have denied to the honest Democratic voters a candidate for District-Attorney whose sole offense is that "he has made New York too hot for The air was clear and frosty, and the Boodlers."

It now remains for the voters to make Nov. 8th the "coldest day" for the Bosses that they have ever known since Tweep's fall.

WHY?

Why has De Layour Nicota, been rejected by the politicians?

Is he not honest? Is he not able? Has he not been faithful to duty and remarkably successful as a public prosecutor? Is he not a sound Democrat? Is he not popular with the people?

There is not an honest man in New York who will not say YES to all these questions. Why, then, was NICOLL rejected?

There is but one reason, and all New York knows it. It is because he has been too honest, too able, too faithful, too popular. He could not be made to "let up" on rogues of any degree. He would not respond to a political "pull" to save an imperilled Boodler. The Bosses who control the party machine have no use for such a man in the District-Attorney's office.

And this is why NICOLL was knifed.

QUITE TOO ABSURD.

The most ridiculous suggestion in connection with the District-Attorneyship is that Mr. Nicola, " may be retained as Col. Fig. Lows's assistant."

Col. FELLows will never have need of an official "assistant." He will be buried out of sight at the polls. There need be no doubt about that.

police, is a wonder.

Before his bad pre-eminence all the other fiends" bow in deep chagrin. His favorite summer and winter resort is the doorway of the horse-cars. Especially on a bobtail car do his unrestricted talents shine. He holds . mass-meetings in the narrow hotel vestibules. He blocks the entrances of the theatres, the exchanges, the big stores and the newspaper offices with unparalleled disregard for the rest of humanity.

He is even more difficult to suppress than the book agent. "Show him the door," and you merely abet his designs. A patent adjustable threshhold, worked by a grandbouncing spring, is probably the only thing that will rid us of the "doorway fiend."

A TICKET OF REVENCE.

The County Democracy Bosses seem to have sacrificed all other considerations to an insatiate thirst for revenge.

preponderance of the ticket, the County Democracy retaining but three of the ten offices.

The "knife" was plunged into Nicoli with malicious satisfaction by the Boodlers and their friends. Honest and efficient Comptroller Logw was slaughtered because he had done his duty too well and too fearlessly in guarding the public treasury against the assauls of dishonest contractors. Will the voters abet this sort of revenge?

It appears to be Civil-Service Commissioner Egenron's idea that it is all right for Government clerks to organize for partisan activity if only they are Democrats. What a pied and ring-streaked Reform we shall have if this sort of thing goes on.

NICOLL for the District-Attorneyship to its last analysis it comes to this—he simply did his duty. We of course respect a man for doing his duty, but we do not necessarily honor him. What else could he do t-N. F. Herald.

He might have gone to the Hot Springs.

DE LANCEY NICOLL's firm health is a point in his favor. He could not be made to see that he required a journey to the South when a pet of the Ring and the Corporations was to be put on trial for accepting a bribe.

It is asserted that JAY GOULD will spend the winter on the Mediterranean. As an erratio, disturbing and dangerous force he could give pointers to Vesuvius and Etna.

GLADSTONE has been made an "antiquarian" by a society in Massachusetts. He is of journalism. It bids fair to live forever as an at his best, however, as a contemporary. The Tories are the real antiquarians.

The sort of Fellows the people want in their semi-judicial positions are those whose constitutions do not habitually break down when Boodlers are at the bar.

Besches's books are soon to be sold at auction, but his big shoes are yet unfilled.

There are knives that cut both ways. Has Plenty of Its Own

(From the Pittsburg Chronicle.)
Utah does not need to enter the Union as a State. There is too much union there now, al-though it is of a wrong variety.

See the Sunday Wonto for a striking story of New York's notorious prisoners in Sing Sing and how they serve the State.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. CLEVELAND REACH WASHINGTON ON TIME.

The Presidential Train Arrived at 6.45 This Morning and the Party Were at Once Driven to Their Respective Homes-All Were Well, Although Somewhat Fatigued by the Long Journey-The Trip Enjoyed.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The President's special train arrived here at 6.45 this morning, and Mr. Cleveland's three weeks' excursion came to an end without incident. twenty or thirty people, mostly colored, who stood around waiting catch a glimps of the distinguished party tucked their hands into their pockets and turned up their coat collars to keep warm. The President's carriage was in waiting at the end of the station and Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, with Law Partner Bissell, were driven at once to the White House.
Carriages were also on hand to receive Postmaster General Vilas, Col. Lamont and other members of the party.

When the train pulled into the station the When the train pulled into the station the excursionists were assembled in the rear "P. P. C." car. Mr. Gleveland was the first one to alight. He bowed to a couple of the White House servants, who stood with uncovered heads to greet him, and started across the track alone to his carriage. Mrs. Cleveland followed him closely, and with a pleasant smile to the train attendants, she stepped forward quickly and overtook the President. She wore a close-fitting travelling dress of blue shade, and looked as fresh and bright as on the day of her departure.

The President wore his customary suit of The President wore his customary suit of black, and his face had a wearied expression. He appeared to be very glad to get back and that his long journey was over. He said he had enjoyed the trip, and felt that he had, gained much useful information about the people and the country.

Col. Lamont and Mr. Vilas and Mr. Bissell were soon out of the train and on their way to their respective homes. Mr. Vilas looked pretty well used up. The train was loaded down with floral designs and other gifts presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland by enthusiastic admirers. These were transferred to a wagon and conveyed to the White House.

House.

Asheville, N. C., was the last stop of any length made by the President's train yesterday. Crowds gathered at the stations along the route from that point, but no stop was made to give them a chance to shake hands with the President.

The members of the party retired at an early hour last night and the train was run at a slow rate of speed to give them a good

But if Fellows were to be elected, Descriptions that the train was run at a slow rate of speed to give them a good night's rest. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland appeared about 6:30, just as the train was pulling into Alexandria. The dome of the Capitol was visible from this point, and Mrs. Cleveland said it was a most welcome sight. A member of the party was asked how the different sections of the country impressed the President.

The DOORWAY PIEND.

That so conspicuous and obnoxious a character as the "doorway fiend" should have so long escaped the paragrapher, not to say the police, is a wonder.

met with organized hospitality. There were very few hitches in the man agement, while in the South the hospitality was of a more individual charhospitality was of a more individual character, and was not quite as harmonious in its execution. The arrangements at Atlanta were the worst we encountered. In fact, there were no organized arrangements of any kind, and the crowd was something fearful. The reception at Montgomery was one of the most successful of the trip. The most perfect order was maintained and the arrangements were carefully made and executed." The President was very much impressed with the growth of the North and Southwest.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

The Press Has No End of Praise for "The Evening World."

[From the Ochkoch (Wis.) Northwestern.] If it were not using slang to say so, one might enthusiastically exclaim of THE EVENING WORLD that " it is a daisy."

[From the New Orleans Chronicle,] THE EVENING WORLD, with its first-class typog raphy, brief and independent editorials, and skil-ful condensations of news of the day, is the latest newspaper marvel of New York.

[From the New Orleans Pissyuns.] The New York World now publishes an evening paper called THE EVENING WORLD. If it could have been called "The Earth" it would have filled a long-felt want. Most of the New York people

Prom the Arkaneas Gasette.] THE EVENING WORLD is an event in New York journalism. It displays the enterprise that distinguishes the morning WORLE, is under the same general management, and will make the same rapid strides toward success.

(From the Tyrone (Pa.) Pines.]
That great big paper, the New York WOBLD, has commenced the publication of an evening edition, the initial number of which was issued last week. It is exclusive of the morning, weekly, semiweekly and Sunday editions. It seems there is nothing impossible now-a-days in newspaper work in the larger cities.

[From the Furmouthport (Mass.) Magdower.]

The new EVENING WORLD, of New York City, contains a large amount of entertaining news. presented in a highly attractive manner. The enormous circulation instantly gained by THE WORLD may be due to the fact that previous efforts by New York journalists to build up the circulation of an evening paper have not been properly directed, and that there is an immense field ther that has been for a long time waiting for the proper cultivator.

(From the Nadville American.)
The New York World's evening edition has sprung into unprecedented circulation. The edition Monday, the first date of its issue, was Til,-410, which grew to 128,420 on Wednesday. With the field so well covered, apparently, the enormous and sudden growth is simply astonishing. there isn't any doubt that the same brain and experience and good judgment that made THE World has the guidance of the evening edition It has no superior in journalism.

[From the Proy Budget,]
THE (N. Y.) EVENING WORLD jumped into existence on Monday last with a circulation of over 111,000. No such feat has been performed since Minerva sprang forth fully armed from the brain of Jove. THE EVENING WORLD is a great triumph apt illustration of the survival of the fittest. Whatever happens to other mundane enterprises it is likely to survive "the wreck of matter and the crash of other worlds" when the final smash comes on millennium day. It is worthy of the success it has achieved. Price one cent.

A CHANGED TUNE.

[New York Herald, Oct. 22.] | New York Herald, Oct. 1.1 The men who hold Do the people run this office in this country will city, or do the friends of average for honesty and the boodiers who are now capacity with any other in Sing Sing or Canada? classes, and this general The Same, Oct. 5. shrick of boodling is It is perfectly well nonsense—not even understood by the New good enough for an elec- York public that the boodlers in Sing Sing and The German steamship Saale, which arrived here Canada will do anything o-day from Bremen, brought the captain and to revenge their arrest and conviction on the one crew of eleven men of the Norwegian bark New Brunswick, which had been abandoned at sca. The bark was bound from Quebec to Liverpool, with lumber, and, becoming wateriogged, had to be abandoned on Oct. 18, hand and their involumtary flight on the other.

alist Knights Sympathize with the Con demned Mon-Will There be a Riet? [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The Socialist Knights from Minneapolis did get into the jail to see the condemned Anarchists, though they did not make the great impression they intended to do by marching through the corridors in a ody. The jailer received the fifty-four men civilly, and permitted them to visit the prisoners in squads of eighteen. The Knights ssured the condemned men of their sympathy, expressed the belief that the appeal to the Supreme Court would be successful and promised to make renewed efforts to arouse promised to make renewed efforts to aronae public attention to their case and secure their release. Quinn and Kounz, of New York, were in the delegation.

There is no disguising the fact, there is considerable apprehension of an outbreak on the day of the executions—Nov. 11. The feeling of alarm is pot confined to the authorities. It has spread throughout the city, and especially is it manifested in the neighborhood of the county jail. This building is not near the business centre of the city, but is located on the north side, two blocks away from the river, and running along the east from the river, and running along the east side of the edifice is Dearborn avenue, a street which, only a few streets to the north of the gloomy structure where the fated seven are incarcerated, develops into one of the most fashionable boulevards of Chicago, lined on either side with costly residences. In the immediate vicinity of the jail are

In the immediate vicinity of the jail are long rows of boarding-houses. The location has been considered so good, being hardly a quarter of a mile from the great wholesale and retail districts, that landlords have had not the slightest trouble in finding tenants, but in the last two months, or since the Illinois Supreme Court refused to grant the convicted Anarchists a new trial, a marvellous change has been going on. House after house has been vacated, and the landlords are nownly seeking in the justice courts to enforce their broken leases. In three instances, at least, the tenants boldly declared that they felt that their lives and those of the members of their family would be seriously endangered by residing in close proximity to the jail.

One nervous man declared it to be his be-He acted strangely at the supper table, and when he cut the bread he made several feints at his wife, terrifying her. But she was afraid lest some of the persons in the house should hear of her husband's insanity, and so she repressed her fright, and after much difficulty got the crazy man to bed. But he did not go there to sleep. Throughout the night he moaned and talked wildly, and it was only by exerting her utmost strength that she was the jail.

One nervous man declared it to be his belief, from what he had seen in walking the streets towards his home late at night, that there was a well-defined plot to blow up the jail with dynamite. Others feared that, despite the vigilance of the authorities, a mob would gather on Nov. 11 and seek to rescue the seven Anarchists, or at least precipitate one of the bloodiest riots of modern times. Therefore it is that the sign "For Rent" can be seen on the doors and windows of dwelling-houses for blocks around the jail.

GARRETT GOING IN SPLENDOR. Averious Avenuesments for His Comfort in there to sleep. Throughout the night he mosmed and talked wildly, and it was only by exerting her utmost strength that she was able to keep the man within her rooms.

His Trip Through Mexico. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

The night she passed was a terrible one. Almost overcome by weariness and desperate from fright she struggled with the man until she was almost overcome by sleep and the fearful struggle. But still she would not allow her neighbors to know of her disgrace, and summing her remaining strength she threw herself upon him, seeking to hold him prostrate through shear weight. But the struggle was too much for her. Her husband was now thoroughly insane, and was given almost herculean strength. With a howl of madness he threw her from him and seizing the knife, dashed about the room, slashing at everything within his reach. Mrs. Bierear gave up the struggle and rushed from the room to call help. When she returned her husband was lying on the floor, bleeding from a gash in his throat. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital, where he soon afterward died. BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.-To-morrow Robert Garrett will start on his trip through Mexico. He will travel luxuriously. The private car Maryland, which, until the death of John W. Garrett, had been used by him, and the private car Baltimore, in which Robert Garrett loes his travelling, have been thoroughly overhauled and refurnished. There will also vention this evening to nominate a candiikely be a third car to the special train for date for Mayor. Mayor Daniel D. the French chef, the waiters and other servants of the young millionaire's retinue. The choicest wines and delicacies of the table will Whitney, it is whispered, has writ-State Comptroller Alfred C. Chapin and choicest wines and delicacies of the table will be taken along.

Mr. Garrett proposes to travel through the West and Southwest, spending some time in California, and visit every point of interest that can be reached by railroad in Mexico. Mrs. Garrett will accompany her husband and Dr. W. T. Bernard, J. Swann Frick and Dr. N. S. Gorter will be of the party. One of Mr. Garrett's secretaries will accompany him. im.
In connection with the ex-railroad king's leading candidates to-day, with the odds in favor of Chapin, who is the favorite of Young Democrats and Young Republicans alike. Aldermen Kane, Coffey and McGarry want Deputy Comptroller Brinkerhoff nominated; the uptown leaders are strongly for Rufus L. Scott and Supervisor-at-Large Quintard, while the Eastern District bosses are booking Cross and ex-Registrar of Arrears Theodore Jackson. Conferences are being held three or four times a day at the Constitution Club, where ex-Warden James Shevlin acts as Hugh Mc-Laughlin's representative. There is more Chapin talk than anything else.

That $100,000 prize, the Shrievalty, is also causing a big fight within the ranks. Jury Commissioner Furey and Civil Justice Courtney have carried their fight so far that they forget to speak as they pass by. tour it is reported that he has his eye on several Mexican railroads and other interests in that country, and will make large invest ments there. It is also stated that Mr. Gar rett has prepared a statement to be read at the annual meeting of the Baltimore and Ohio stockholders in November, in which he will speak his mind freely in regard to the recent deals.

TRIED TO DROWN HIMSELF.

A Desperate German Jumps Into the Bay a Midnight.

As the ferry-boat Middletown was entering the slip at St. George's, S. I., last night at 12 o'clock, the cry of "man overboard" was heard. The deck-hands all rushed to the stern of the boat, whence the cry came, and looking over the sides of the boat saw a man struggling in the water. The man was rescued as he was sinking for the last time by Michael Hanrathy, the bridge-tender at St. George's. When the man was lifted into a small boat he became insensible from exhaustion. He was taken into the waiting room at St. George's, where he revived. He was arrested on the charge of attempted suicide. He was committed to the police station at Stapleton. He gave his name as Leo Batdschaniller and claimed that he had been in the country only air mouths. name as Leo Batdschanfiler and claimed that he had been in the country only six months. He also claimed that he had become de-spondent because he could not find work, and he wanted to return to Germany. When searched there was found on him $16.50 and a watch and two chains. A large revolver was also found on him. He claimed to be very poor before he was searched, and made a slight resistance when he was searched.

IN TOWN FOR A DAY.

At the Albemarle: Edward N. Gibbs, of C. W. Reed, the California arborculturist, of Sacramento, is at the Astor House.

Ex-Senator R. A. Parmenter, of Troy, is at the Hoffman House, with his daughter. Elnathan Sweet, the State Engineer, regis-ters at the New York Hotel, from Albany. H. H. Bingham, member of Congress from Philadelphia, is a guest at the St. James Hotel.

Superintendent of State Prisons Gen. Austin Lathrop, of Corning, is at the Gilsey Gen. C. J. Langdon, a prominent citizen of Elmira, is a recent arrival at the Gilsey

At the Brunswick is General Passenger Agent S. K. Hooper, of the Denver and Ric Grande Railroad. Interstate Commerce Commissioner Augustus Schoonmaker, of Kingston, N. Y., is at the New York Hotel, accomparied by hi wife and daughter.

With other guests at the Fifth Avenue Hotel are ex-Senator J. N. Camden, of West Virginia, and Washington McLesn, ex-pro-prietor and publisher of the Cincinnati En-

Ex.Senator Warner Miller has come down from Herkimer to assist in the preservation of harmony in the Republican camp at Cooper Union to-night. He is quartered at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, as is also his suc-cessor, Senator Frank Hiscock.

Henry George Scores Ring Rulers. (From a Speech in Fonkers Last Sight.)
"Look at what is going on in New York City to without foundation and unifue in every respect. No one had authority to make such report. Campbell is in about the same condition as he has beer for several months. light. It is a spectacle for God and men. There, at this very moment, are gathered a knot of office olders. They are the representatives of the factions of the Democratic party—the County Democ racy and Tammany Hall. There they are to-night dickering and bargaining as to the offices to be filled at the enguing election. The only question between them is how to divide the spoils. We are these men? Why, professional politicians ex-pugilists, gambiers and keepers of run-mills. There is not a single man among them who has se cured any prominence by his intellectual ability. There is not a single man among them who is noted for anything else than the tricks of the ward poli-tician.

tician.

"To combine the ward workers, to manage primaries, to manipulate conventions, to bargain for and trade in offices and to collect assessments is their part. These are the ways by which to-day in our great American cities and all through the country men are raised to power.

"To-day in the city of New York offices are for sale. The men who have to decide on questions of life and liberty buy their offices. To-day the assessment levied on candidates for the Supreme Bench is over $30,000, and in many cases much larger sums are expended to secure election."

FIGS AND THISTLES.

A colt, which has the head and paws of a bear and is covered with a long, thick coat of hair, is a curiosity in St. John's Parish, La. When walking the colt stands erect on its hind legs, like

Martin Wehunt, of Dahlonega, Ga., cut open deer he had killed and discovered two curious stones in the animal's stomach. They were found o be madstones, and have since been used with A new college course in ,"scientific temper ance" has been added to the curriculum of the Grant Memorial University at Athens, Tenn. It is the first of the kind in any collectate institution in the world, Miss Arnoldsen, the Swedish star, has captured series of concerts there, and impressed the fishermen of the place so strongly that they sent her whale as a present. The toughest resident of Silver City, Art., is a little Indian boy who was captured during Gero-nimo's raid two years ago. He is only four years old, but he has already nearly killed a boy by cutting him with a bowle-knife. Job Arden, of Rock Creek, Ill., thought the cushion in his chair seemed remarkably soft, and se soon found out that he had sat down upon occasin snake. He killed the snake, but no until it had bitten into his buckskin breeches. While fishing from a rowboat near Orange City Fig. Mr. John Thursby tied his line to the boy and laid down for a nap. When he awoke he was three miles up stream and a big cattish was tugging away at the line for dear life. The fish weighe over twenty pounds.

The officers' quarters at Fort | Riley. Kan., on by a subject of England. The forest is 16 miles in circuit and comprises over 4,000 acres.

"Weeping Joe," a sensational preacher, in Clark County, Ind., saw that his congregation was dwindling and announced that he would have something new for them at the next meeting. He redeemed his promise by turning several handsprings and a somersault in the pulpit, and his congregation has since grown to astonishing pro-William Bopp, a San Francisco butcher who ent insane the other day, imagines that he is an animal and startles people by bleating like a sheep, grunting like a pig and butting like a goat. When taken to the asylum he insisted that he should be killed and eaten, as he was "one part mutton, one part goat and one part pork." The recent horse fair at Wichita, Kan., was held or the benefit of St. John's Episcopal Church, and the proceeds will be deposited in the contribution box of the church next Sunday. While the racing was in progress the rector occupied a seat on the judges' stand and helped them render their decitions. The affair has already divided the church into two factions. Capt. D. Smith Harris, of Galena, Ill., is thought to be the oldest surviving settler of the Northwest erritory. He is eighty years of age and went West from New York in 1823, when the country berond Ohio was but little more than a wilderness. In 1833 he helped his brother build the steamer Jo Daviess, the first steamboat constructed on the Mississippi River. The people of Augusta, Ga., are laughing about the ludicrous mishap that befell a citizen who occupled one of the rear seats in the balcony at the theatre the other evening. He was not familiar with the use of opera-glasses, and as he raised the ent nearness of the stage startled him and he went plunging backwards down the stairs. A citizen of Americus, Ga., who is not a prohiarge letters on a poster which was pasted on a tree. It was a new word to him, and he spent five hours in a weary tramp around the tree endesvoring to decipher it, but the letters overlapped and he could not make it out. He was found prostrate at the foot of the tree, thoroughly exhausted. As the Presidential train came to a stop in the station at Council Bluffs, Ia. , a man rushed eagerly up to the platform, grasped the President's hand "That's a Christian charm to and screamed out: cure all manner of diseases. When you had rheumatiz last winter I sent you a charm that cured you and saved your life. This will save your life and bring you into the kingdom of God.

Monopoly to Blame.

[From the Hontgomery Advertiser.]
The vast monopolies of the country are largely esponsible for the unrest in labor circles. This is not confined to the men who, claiming to be labor ers, scout the idea of honest toll and live by agitation and advocacy of the overthrow of all law and order, but to the millions who are honest daily toilers. This feeling is shown by the resolution of the Knights of Labor, now in session at Minneapolis, asking Congress to establish a telegraph system of its own, in order to prevent the creation of monopolies that can buy out all competitors.

No Pleasure in It for Him. [From the Binghamton Republican.] Smith—Delightful day, old follow.

Brown-Delightful day! I don't see it.

"Indeed! Why, what could be more glorious! glory! the musical twitter of the birds! the dashes of flame and gold in the tall maples! There, do you hear that note in yonder tree."

"Oh, yes; I hear the note, but it isn't in yonder tree. It is in the Merchanis National Bank, represents $200, has my name signed to it, and is due to-day." The yellow sunshine bathing nature in a sea of

Done in "Moses-Ache."

(Prom London Society.) Queen Victoria's Jubilee presents are at present on exhibition at the St. James's Palace, London The other day a stout dame from the East End of London, who had placed herself and her friend op-posite the Pope's gift of a Virgin Mary in mosaic, was heard to remark: "'Yes, my dear, there's a portrait of the Queen when a girl, done in what they call Moses-ache, which is 'Oliness the Pope gave to Her Majesty."

Love but Don't Swallow. [From Max O'Bell's l'Ami Donald,] The minister meets Donald who has a pro-aconced taste for whiskey. nonneed taste for winesey.

"You are too fond of whiskey, Donald, and yet you know you shouldn't be. You know as well as I do that whiskey is your worst enemy."

"Yes, minister, but you often say in kirk that we are to love our enemios." "Yes, minister, but you often say in kirk that we are to love our enemies."
"That's so," replied the minister, "but I never told you to swallow them."

Military Tourists Homeward Bound. Most of the soldiers who came from Sweder Denmark and Belgium, to visit the national milit ary encampment at Chicago, started for home ic day on the steamer Gelser of the Thingvalla Line A number of people were on the wharf to see ther

How New York City invites a plague! See the way WonLD.

SPORTS INDOORS AND OUT.

SULLIVAN SAYS THAT HE IS TRAINING FOR

REAL WORK. The Billiard Match Between Sexton and e Billiard Match Between Maurice Daly-Many Athletic Events for Maurice Daly-Many Athletic

side. It will take place in six weeks. Daly thinks he will have a better chance to best Sexton in a series than a single game, on the principle that a slower horse in fine fettle has the call in the betting if it's a heat race. The best billiard and pool experts in the city will give exhibitions of _ their skill at a testimonial to be tendered Albert Lambert, now hold a meeting this evening, the Seventh Regiment Athletic Association intends to have some great games. It will hold them on Dec. 3, commencing at 8 o'clock in the evening. Besides six runof the oldest military posts in the country, are said to be the abode of ghosts. Many mysterious tragedies have taken place at the fort, and evil fortune has attended nearly every officer who has been quartered there.

Savemahe House, the residence of the Earl of Allesbury, who has been ruled off the turf for dishonest practices, stands in the midst of Savemahe Forest, the largest place of wooded country owned by a subject of England. The forest is 16 miles in

It seems a pity an athletic bureau can't be

It seems a pity an athletic bureau can't be established or some other means of preventing the conflicting of dates by amateur athletic clubs invented. There isn't anything particularly notable about Saturday, Sept. 8, but the Manhattan Athletic Club, the Spartan Harriers and the Seventh Regiment Athletic Club have all picked on this one short winter's day for a meeting. Lots of lovers of good boxing and indoor athletics will be deprived of enjoyment they might just as well have, and others will have whichever entertainment they decide to attend damaged by worrying over not being able to see what is going on at the other meetings, and it's very rough on the reporters.

Very shortly the thirteen rowing clubs on the Harlem River will put their boats in the sticks for the winter. Most of the boat-houses will be in use during the cold season and some of the hardest the cold season and some of the hardest rowing of the year will take place in them—around the stoves. The New York Athletic Club doesn't expect to bother with its house on the river any more than to see that no harm comes to the shells, as by spring their builders will set to work on new and more commodious quarters for the

No. It Won't Do.

[From the New York Heveld, Stept, 28.]
Now, gentlemen, that won't do; it won't do at all. If you think you are going to run the politics of New York to shield criminals you may as well be told now as after election that you are mightily mistaken. The common sense of this city is indig-nantly against you. There are honest voters enough, too, to defeat your plot, and if it be necessary a ticket will be put into the field which will cause you unessiness.

its provisions an Irish girl, fourteen years old, has been clapped into jail for the monstrous crime of intimidating the brave police by blowing a horn. The England of to-day is indeed a powerful

The Iniquitous Coercion Act.
[From the Nathville American.]
A great thing—a marvellously great thing—is that Coercion act of the English Cabinet. Under

Belva and the Bustle. (From the Louisville Courier-Fournal.)
Mrs. Belvie Lockwood has just organized a new political party. It has any number of pro-

Too Short.

[From Puck.] Gentlemanly Burgiar (in hotel corridor)—Did you ose a pair of breeches out of your room last night? Hotel Guest-Yes; and I've just sent out for ways to be scolding you for forgetting.

Mere Scolding Had No Refect.

Amiable but Forgettui Domestic—Faith, mum, you don't scold. It's quite pleasant you are, mum. The last ledy I lived wid used to come out into the kitchen and stamp her feet and throw things at Se.

Hilled His Best Customer.

HE long-discussed match between Billy ation Trouble - Harlem Rewing

A STORY the hearts of the people of Bergen, Norway, by a 110 seriously ill, at West End Hall, in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, on Oct. 27. In spite of its kicking members, who will

John L. Sullivan has sent a private letter to a friend in this city saying he really is getting some of the beef off, and that he is going to keep straight, do up everybody with any championship pretensions in England, come back and punish the boxers that yelp at his heels when he's away and then re-Al Powers, the Pittsburg pool expert, and old Sam Knight played a match, best 21 in 41 games, last night for $200. Knight's place on Sixth avenue, where the playing was done, was packed with sporting men. Powers won handily with a score of 21 to 12 games. Knight and Hen Stedeker's brother have matched Charlie Manning to play the Pennsylvanian for $100 a side. The new man, who is beginning to be looked on as a promising candidate in the coming tournament, plays with great accuracy, a point much in his favor in his match with Manning, which will be played on a regulation table and with standard size balls. The games last night were played on a 45439 table, small balls and large pockets.

spring their builders will set to work on new and more commodious quarters for the eights and gigs, singles and barges. The Union boys, whose new club-house has only lately found a resting-place on the Westchester shore, above Madison Avenue Bridge, look forward to many pleasures. To-day the Columbia College boys hold their final rowing races before stowing their boats and putting away their blue-and-white striped shirts till January, when they will commence training under Capt. Guy Richards in the gymnasium.

objects, but there is a suspicion that its real pur-pose is to secure the protection of the American bustle from the sacrilegious hands of the custom-house officials.

another pair.

Burgiar—That's good; but I wish you'd tell me who made these for you. I wan' ter take 'm down an' get 'm lengthened!

[From Harper's Basser.]
Mistress—Why can't you remember, Bridget, when I tell you a thousand times? I don't like al-

A druggist the other day committed a fatal error. In putting up a prescription he poisoned the patient. When the terrible nows was announced to him he tore out quite a handful of his hair and remarked:

"Well! that was unlucky! It was my best out-tomer,"